The funds raised from this event will sponsor summer camps for children from families in crisis. WIZO is the largest provider of social services in Israel. Since 1920, WIZO has built and operated over 800 projects throughout the country to improve the lives of women, children and the elderly. By supporting this event, you will be making an immeasurable difference in the lives of countless Israelis.

YPJC is an organization of young Jewish professionals based in Manhattan. In conjunction with the Persian Jewish Center, YPJC is in the process of creating a Center in Manhattan to serve as a local hub for social, networking, and religious events. The goal of YPJC is to foster a sense of community, empower Jewish youth, and raise awareness for Persian Jewish traditions and cultural values.

General Admission and Host Committee contributions are tax deductible, less $75 per ticket.
